bulletin.

Representatives of the shelter, Betty Thunder Hawk & Liz Kingi came to speak to the Pastoral Council on public education concerning this shelter for women who have been battered or raped. Standing Strong Woman House needs strong public support and I want to share this information with you, the community of Our Lady of the Black Hills. Please look for more information to come.

thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament A Resource of the Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy
USCCB Publishing

16. How is the Blessed Sacrament reverenced? How is the reverence different when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed? What distinguishes the reverence given to the exposed Sacrament from adoration before the tabernacle is the communal nature of reverence to the exposed Sacrament. In Eucharistic exposition, the Blessed Sacrament is reverenced by the common prayer of the people in silence, song and meditation, by incensation, and by other liturgical acts, including genuflection. “A single genuflection is made in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, whether reserved in the tabernacle or exposed for public adoration.”

Goodness Works Quietly

Your contributions to the 2005 Peter's Pence Collection . . .

- Enable the Holy Father to respond with immediate emergency assistance to those who suffer from the impact of war, oppression, and natural disasters.
- Involve more than one billion Catholics worldwide in supporting the Holy Father's mission, an active expression of Christ's love for the poor.
- Make up nearly half of all gifts -- dioceses in the U.S. have given more than $175 million in contributions.

Your charitable works express love in the quietness of daily service. Thank you.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION FOR VOCATIONS

"The Eucharist is the source and nourishment of every priestly and religious vocation."

Pope John Paul II

Pray for vocations before the monstrance blessed by Pope John Paul II.

Bishop Cupich invites you to celebrate the Closing Mass with him at 5:30 PM at OLPH Cathedral on Wednesday, June 29th.

Adoration will begin after the 7:00 AM Mass at OLPH and continue until Benediction at 5:15 PM with Bishop Cupich.

Diocesan Masses for Life

Dear Parishioner,

Since January 1, 2003, this diocese has offered daily Masses imploring God to protect life from conception to natural death. Since many parish priests participate, the Masses are offered in parishes throughout the West River diocese. One way you can join in this effort is to attend any of the Masses. Also, you can help sponsor these Masses by contributing to the stipend fund. This effort is entirely supported by individual contributions. Schedules of the dates and locations of the Masses are posted in the West River Catholic newspaper. Checks can be made payable to: 'Diocesan Masses for Life' and forwarded to Mary Mitchell, 113 Berry Pine Road, Rapid City, SD 57702. Thank you for your participation and support.

-Diocesan Masses for Life Committee

Monthly Prayer Day. Saturday, July 2nd in Benedict Hall, 1:00-3:00 p.m. Refreshments will be provided; offering of $10.00 is appreciated. Participants experience a time of quiet, scripture praying, conferences and shared reflections. It will be a time to do centering, Lectio, and your own prayer practices. Kindly pre-register. Sister Marmion Howe, 343-2688.

For the Ride Home

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 26, 2005

Scripture

- Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son." (2 Kings 4:16a)
- If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. (Romans 6:8)
- Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. (Matthew 10:39)
- Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. (Matthew 10:40)

Reflection

- Why does Elisha work a miracle for the women of Shunem? (Hint: She was kind.)
- How do you find your life? (Hint: Lose it.)
- How have you died with Christ? How do you live in Christ?
- Prayfully consider, "Whoever receives you receives me." Is this true?

The continuing story of salvation in Christ involves each of us one by one as well as society itself. How else could it be? Conversion speaks of the change of heart that, as a member of the Church, each one must undergo. The Gospel speaks across time and space to each human being, each mind, each heart. It asks us what we think about our lives, how we hope, whom we love, and what we live for. If faith is not transforming each heart and life, it is dead. ... we must let our faith shine on the world around us, radiating the love for Jesus by the everyday way we speak, think, and act.¹
